S.B. CIVIL WRIT PETITION NO. 4583/2007

SMT. DHAKOLI DEVI & ANR. Vs. STATE OF RAJ. & ORS.

DATE: 10.07.2007.

HON'BLE MR. K.S. RATHORE, J.

Mr. Vijay Pathak for the petitioners.

****

This writ petition has been filed by the petitioners after serving notice for demand of justice seeking writ order or direction directing the respondents to give appointment to the petitioner No.2 as a dependent of the deceased Government servant with all consequential benefits. Further the respondents may be directed to reimburse the medical bills of the father and husband of the petitioners and they may also be directed to make the payment of State Insurance, GPF and pension/ pensionary benefits which are admissible to the petitioners with all consequential benefits.

Since after serving notice for demand of justice, no action was taken by the respondents, therefore, this writ petition has been preferred by the petitioners against the inaction of the respondents.

Having considered the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, legal notice as well as the facts mentioned in the writ petition, I deem it proper to direct the respondents to consider the case of the petitioners for the relief claimed by them as well as the notice for demand of justice dated 05.09.2006 served by the petitioners through their counsel and shall pass appropriate order in accordance with the provisions of law, expeditiously but in any case not later than six months from the date of passing of this order. Further the decision so taken on the notice for demand of justice by the respondents be informed to the petitioners and the petitioners are given liberty to file fresh writ petition, if any prejudicial order is passed by the respondents.

The writ petition stands disposed of in the terms as indicated above.
